Sedgwick County EMS Crews "Deliver" During Winter Weather

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Even in snow and ice, Sedgwick County EMS delivers. Today, a very special delivery came from a team of Sedgwick County paramedics who delivered a baby girl at approximately 11:03 a.m. near 13th & Washington. The delivery took place in the ambulance during transport to Wesley Medical Center. Both mother and child are reportedly doing fine.

Overall, the recent weather has caused fewer ambulance calls than normally expected in such wintry conditions. From 3:00 pm on Tuesday, January 29 to noon Thursday, just 20 injury accidents, 27 falls and 1 cold exposure case have required response from Sedgwick County EMS.
